Global Resource Champions Split Corp. Announces Change of Investment Manager

TORONTO — April 20, 2018 — Brookfield Investment Management (Canada) Inc. (the “Manager”), the manager of Global Resource Champions Split Corp. (the “Company”) (TSX: GRP.PR.A), announces that Brookfield Investment Management Inc. (“Brookfield”), an affiliate of the Manager, will assume the investment management responsibilities for the Company effective April 23, 2018. Tom Miller will be responsible for portfolio management for the Company. The Company’s investment objectives and strategies will not change. The change reflects the internal reorganization of resources at Brookfield.

Mr. Tom Miller has seven years of industry experience and is a Director on the Infrastructure Equities team. He is responsible for covering North American infrastructure securities focusing on MLPs and the Energy Infrastructure sector. Prior to joining the firm in 2013, he worked at FactSet. Mr. Miller holds the Chartered Financial Analyst® designation. He earned a Bachelor of Science degree from Indiana University.
